“Strength does not come from physical capacity. It comes from an indomitable will.”

— Mahatma Gandhi
Dear Friends,

2017 was another year of fantastic successes and outcomes! The following pages illustrate the difference we made and the impact our services have had on thousands. This year we are also very excited to present the short videos done by some members of our Survivors Speakers Bureau! If you haven't watched them they can be found on our website. Each survivor offers a message about their healing. We thank these brave survivors for sharing their experiences to help educate others!

In 2017 the emergence of the #MeToo movement started conversations about how we treat sexual assault survivors, the dismal results in the criminal justice system as an avenue to hold abusers accountable and the lack of commitment to prevention. Now our state and community has heard about the lifelong consequences of violence on so many! We will continue to advocate and use this opportunity to strengthen prevention in our state and community.

Finally, this is my last Annual Report letter! There have been so many milestones and successes to reflect upon from the opening of the Forensic Nurse Examiner Program to the building of a new emergency shelter. I have been honored to lead this amazing organization since 2001. I thank all of the staff, volunteers and our community partners and allies for your ongoing support and faith in this organization's mission and work! Also, thank you for supporting my leadership! Not many people have the privilege to come to work and know what they do saves lives, changes futures and opens minds! I leave Turning Point in a place of strength: with highly developed survivor centered services; a fiscally sound organization and a growing donor base that will help us succeed for many years to come. I look forward to watching as Turning Point continues to lead the way on trauma informed services, advocacy and prevention.

Sincerely,
Suzanne Coats, CEO

Staff Renae Diegel & Gail Lippert teaching on the treatment of the Child Sexual Assault Survivors at the International Association of Forensic Nursing in Toronto, Canada.
“I miss my old house, but I know I’m safe at shelter. I like coming to counseling because I have someone to talk to.” — A child at the shelter

“You guys helped us like nobody else would ever help us. I was very shocked when I stepped in only with the outfit I had on. When you guys gave us clothes, fed us, and did whatever you could to help us, kinda like our baby steps all over again.” — Written in children’s journal by a child in the shelter
Community Advocacy Program staff and interns provided advocacy and support to 33 families leaving shelter for 3 months. These advocates meet with the survivor in their own homes to discuss their hopes and needs and then work side-by-side with them in finding the resources they need to reach those goals.

“It was another person helping me and giving me hope.” — Survivor in CAP

“We gain strength, and courage, and confidence by each experience in which we really stop to look fear in the face... we must do that which we think we cannot.”

— Eleanor Roosevelt
